COMMUNION.....Ron Barker

- Turn Your Eyes Upon Jesus

We believe that Communion should be open to any Christian, guest or church member, who shows proper appreciation for the significance of the body and blood of Christ and who is not living in willful disobedience to God (1 Corinthians 11:27-30). As the communion trays are passed, we invite you to partake of the bread before passing the tray on. Then when receiving the cup, partake of its contents and place the empty cup back in the tray.

If you are a guest, we welcome you to our service and ask that you fill out the perforated portion of this bulletin and place it in the offering plate. Our greatest desire is for you to have a personal, spiritual relationship with Jesus Christ. He is our only hope for experiencing God's forgiveness for sin (John 3:16) and the joy that can be ours in this life (Romans 14:17).

If we can help you with any physical, emotional or spiritual need, feel free to contact us at 620-896-2461.

MARCH

TODAY.... We don't know the specifics of when it happened. We don't know the specifics of how it happened but somewhere along the way, Naomi had to come to grips with the fact, “she wasn't where she was supposed to be.” Thankfully, God had a friend right there willing and waiting to respond. I find it fascinating to learn the meaning of the name Ruth is “Friend”. When Naomi was willing and ready, God had a friend for her. And a friend that is a true friend will be there when you need them, steer you in the right direction, be willing to say what needs to be said and do what needs to be done. And God will provide a Ruth in your life if and when you come to grips with the fact, “I am not where I need to be and I'm willing to make a change!”

Tonight ... begins a three-week, Sunday evening Bible study in the home of Josh and Angeline Neske. The study is from 6:30-8 and is entitled "Haggai: Building God's Church" (rightnow Media).
